DISCOVERING THE FUN OF NETWORKING!

Artists and business professionals recently packed a special networking/self promotion seminar facilitated by Emmanuel and hosted by NewPath Network in downtown Toronto.

The audience discovered simple techniques for integrating their personal interests into a 30 second intro/pitch. By effectively 'tooting their own horn' others would connect on a personal level first and then be open for discussing business.

The second half of the evening had everyone in smaller groups and successfully applied Emmanuel's fun methods of networking. Despite the diversity of the business backgrounds participants left having made many new connections.
