UNLEASH YOUR HIDDEN SELF-CONFIDENCE

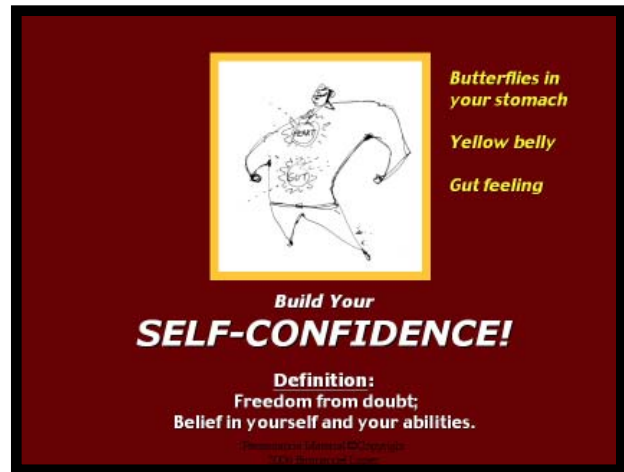

This year Emmanuel celebrates his company's 20 year anniversary with new motivational programs for the Royal Ontario Museum.

"Improve Your Social Interactions" workshops are offered through the museum's ROMLife "Connecting" program. In this 4 session course, participants learn how to face their fears when meeting new people and build self-confidence and self-esteem.

Satisfied participants from the February course included a diverse group who were either single or simply looking to interact more effectively with others.

COMMENTS:

"Emmanuel's people skills and motivational abilities are fantastic! I have really enjoyed the classes immensely, feel very positive about myself and my future when I leave the class!"

Elizabeth J.

"I'm benefiting from the licence I feel to push my personal boundaries generated from our assignments. The atmosphere in our class was truly comfortable and supportive and I feel secure taking risks with my classmates knowing that they're ready to take risks too."

Andrew P.

"I enjoyed learning about what the true definition of introversion and extroversion is versus the stereotypes about these qualities."

Sarah G.

"Emmanuel has tapped into a brilliant method of facilitating back-to-basics people skills for anyone wanting to connect for either business, friendship or love."
