MAY/JUNE 2006 VOL. 19

MOTIVATING NEWCOMER PROFESSIONALS

Emmanuel recently spoke to newcomers to Toronto at Goodwill's Job Shop Program and St. Stephen's Employment Training Centre with enthusiastic results.

Participants received motivational tips for identifying one another as great resources. Emmanuel emphasized the importance of building relationships and allies so no one feels isolated and lost in a new country.

The United Nations has called Toronto the most multicultural city in the world proving there is an abundance of diverse opportunities here for the taking. Emmanuel's key to success is to know what your goals are and to communicate them with confidence to anyone you meet. You never know who could help.

"Mr. Lopez encompassed each and every relevant issue to our group of foreign trained professionals. His powerful and articulate style of communication, combined with his use of illustrations, was extremely effective on his audience."
